Missionary Society to Held Picnic-Mr. and Mrs. Bohanan in White Mountains-Mr. Ricketts Regaining

This afternoon the Ladies' Mission-ary Society of the Federated church will hold a basket picnic at Mohegan Park. If the weather should be inclement they will hold a meeting in the chapel of the church instead.

Outing Club Organized. Wednesday evening the Yale Club held their monthly meeting in their rooms on North Main street with a rooms on North Main street with a large number in attendance President John Morrison presided and routine business was transacted. One application for membership was received and accepted. Among the important matters discussed was the pelicy of organizing an outing club. It was voted to establish a camp at Poquetanuck drawbridge. The boys will have two tents, one in which to do their cooking, the other to sleep in. It is expected that the boys will spend their vacations at the camp and spend their vacations at the camp and pend their vacations at the camp and hose who are working will spend heir week-end there. The boys will have a grand opening on Saturday Early Morning Runaway.

Early Wednesday morning the horse belonging to a Lisbon farmer, who was selling vegetables, became fright-ened on Upper North Main street and graph pole. The team was overturn egraph pole. The team was overturn-ed, spilling the vegetables along the street. The horse continued running until stopped near Eighth street by Maurice Coughlin. No damage was done other than the loss of the vegewas at the rear of the house when the horse started. Touring Mountains.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Johns Bohannan ieft Monday a week's trip through the New Hampshire White Mountains and the Adirondacks of New York. Mrs. Bohannan will spend the summer there but Mr. Bohannan will return and conduct the regular services.

Regaining Health. Rev. C. H. Ricketts and wife were in Brooklyn for a brief outing last week. Mr. Ricketts is slowly recover-ing from a severe attack of the grip.

scription for the United States army, according to a bullstin of information sent out by the draft authorities. He must prove to the exemption board for his district that it would be practically impossible for his wife to get along without the companion for his laber.

Exemptions will be made on six well-defined grounds, as follows:

1. That he is along without the companion will be made on six well-defined grounds, as follows:

1. That he is a nofficer, legislative, executive or judicial of the United States, a state or territory, or the District of Columbia.

2. That he is a regular or duly ordained minister of religion.

3. That he was, on May 18, 1917, a student preparing for the ministry in any recognized theological or divinity school.

4. That he is already in the military or naval service of the United States.

STRANGE FLASHES OF LIGHT SEEN IN GROTON About Five Hundred Delegates Will Somebody is Signaling Information. Claim Residents.

Hartford has been designated as the place for holding the next annual diocesan convention of the Protestant Episcopal church of Connecticut. Bishop Brewster has informed the convention bureau that the annual sessions of the diocese of Connecticut will take place in Hartford every third year after 1918.

The convention will probably be held in Christ church and it is expected that about 500 delegates will attend. This is considered one of the most important religious gatherings of the year in Connecticut. The annual meeting of the Church Scholarship society will also be held in Hartford and will come to that city every third year thereafter. About 300 delegates are expected to attend. Rev. George T. So great is the interest in Groton that if some steps are not taken by government officials soon, private individuals will endeavor to ascertain what the matter is and who is operating the flashes. George Poyerd has returned from brief business trip to Boston.

It was suggested Wednesday that the flashes came from the searchlight used at the railroad bridge ever Mystic river. When used to Illuminate the bridge piers the light would not be visible in the borough, but if for any reason the rays were turned upward they might produce just the effect that has occasioned so much speculation.

BIG JAM IN INTERNAL REVENUE TAXES

John Dunais and William Brooks have returned after spending the week end with friends on Laurel Hill. Report Sent to Washington by Collector James J. Walsh.

Collector of Internal Revenue James J. Walsh of the Connecticut district, which includes Rhode Island, has sent to Washington a report showing the total collections of internal revenue in the district for the year ending June 36 to be $17,623,217.39. This is an in crease in round numbers of $10,000,000 collections for the years 1907-08-09-10-11-12 and 1913.
